Dear Miss Faring:

General Smith has asked me to thank you for your letter of 26 February. You will understand, I am sure, that unlike most Government agencies, this one does not have printed material which it can make available in response to inquiries such as yours.

May I suggest, however, that there are a number of published sources in the field of your study which would provide a very satisfactory basis for your research paper. I am sure you will be able to find some of these either in your local library or through its loss relationships with other libraries.

With best wishes,

Sinc	Sincerely,
Assistant	to	the	Director
